

LABOR EDUCATION FOR GRADUATING STUDENTS (LEGS)

I. Background

Graduating students of vocational and baccalaureate courses, who would sooner or later join the labor force, are given orientation on labor and employment matters through the Labor Education for Graduating Students (LEGS) Seminar, which aims to prepare the students in the world of work. The program will help graduating students become familiar with DOLE's services on employment facilitation, workers protection and social security coverage for the employees.

II. Topics

This seminar includes topics on:

1. Pre-employment tips/preparation
2. Employer and Workers' Rights
3. Social Security Coverage, Health & Safety and Insurance (PHIC, SSS coverage)
4. Anti-Illegal Recruitment (AIR)
5. Prevailing minimum wage in the Region

III. How to Avail of this Program?

The School Management may avail of this program by writing the nearest DOLE Provincial Office to signify its intention to avail of the seminar.
